...THE NATIONAL POLICY...

Without it, this grade of paper would not have been manufactured in Canada.

CAMPAIGN SONG No. 1. Rally, ye Sons of Protection.

Air—"The Red, White and Blue."

I.

Now rise up men of the nation,
Rise up at your country's command;
Come forward whatever your station,
And shoulder to shoulder we'll stand.
We may differ in creed and in color,
French and English; and Red men are we;
But we're one for our cause and our country,
We are one for the good old N.P.

CHORUS:

Then three cheers for the good old N.P.,
Give a hearty three times three;
We are one for our cause and our country,
We are one for the good old N.P.

II.

It has nourished the son of the city,
It has nourished the son of the soil;
Surrounded the workmen with plenty,
Awarded with wages his toil.
It has fed both the lordly and lowly,
And master and man will agree;
And its foes are admitting, tho' slowly,
Success means, the good old N.P.

—CHORUS.

III.

So rally ye sons of Protection,
And shoulder to shoulder we'll stand;
We'll gather from every direction,
From seashore and lakeside and land.
For the tariff that fostered and fed us,
From the hour of its birth we began
To know, to prosperity it led us,
And we'll stand by it now to a man.

—CHORUS.

E. PAULINE JOHNSON.

CAMPAIGN SONG No. 2. Stand Fast for Protection.

Air—"Tramp, Tramp, Tramp."

I.

Nature with a bounteous hand, has enriched our native land;
With her gifts of forest, field and mine and sea;
With Canadian pluck and skill, fostered by Protection still,
None can say how bright our future yet shall be.

CHORUS—

Stand fast, brothers for Protection,
Tell its virtues o'er and o'er;
We have proved it in the past, we'll defend it to the last,
Getting blessing from it ever more and more.

II.

Proper tariff legislation, giveth healthy stimulation,
Every class and trade the magic touch doth feel;
Labor heeds the call that's made, handsome wages
earned and paid,
And the people leap by bounds to higher weal.

—CHO.

III.

Our own Canada's domain, boundless riches doth contain,
Nothing lacketh that a nation's growth befits;
Enterprise that true and bold, will transmute the
whole to gold,
And confound the monstrous folly of the Grits.

—CHO.

SHEM.

Campaign Song No. 3. For Home and Native Land.

Air—"Marching Thro' Georgia."

I.

Come, rally 'round the flag again, Canadians good and true,
Protection is in danger, and our country looks to
you;
To keep our factories humming, and defeat the free trade crew.
And once more go marching to victory.

CHORUS—

Hurrah, hurrah, for home and native land;
Hurrah, hurrah, for Protection we must stand,
We have a loyal leader, and under his command,
We'll carry his banner to victory.

II.

If Laurier should win the day, then things would go
to rack;
The wheels of industry will stop, and men will get
the sack;
And if you cross the line for work they'll quickly send
you back,
For Yankees believe in Protection.

CHORUS—

Hurrah, hurrah, for the red, white and blue;
Hurrah, hurrah, for Tupper good and true;
He's fighting for our Canada, and we will see him
through.
As we go marching to victory.

E. CARSWELL.
